YEARLY STOCK BOOK

VOLUME 13

TO

OCTOBER 10, 1926

Containing a cumulative record by months from January 10, 1926 to October 10, 1926, of all firms making a market in unlisted and inactive listed stocks as well as a monthly record of prices.

Firms not sending in quotations in any issue in 1926 but who have been represented since the beginning of the Monthly Service in April, 1913, are given in supplement on yellow pages in the back part of the volume.

THE NATIONAL SERVICES

Monthly Corporation Bond Summary:

A Cumulative list for one year of all markets for some thirty thousand bonds, giving original houses of issue, dealers names, date and price of offering or wants. Information obtained from all circulars, special lists and advertisements of practically all bond dealers in the United States.

Monthly Stock Summary:

Entirely uniform with the Monthly Bond Summary but covering Stocks. Listing some fifteen thousand Unlisted and Inactive Listed Stocks.

Monthly Municipal Bond Summary:

Gives a record of all sales with prices for a year back, arranged by States and also lists the contents of all dealers' Circulars.

National Association Daily Service:

A service sent out each night from our New York, Chicago and San Francisco offices and containing offerings and wants from over 1,000 leading investment and trading houses throughout the country. Membership is subject to certain restrictions which will be furnished on application.

Babson-Elliot Year Books:

For houses requiring only occasional information two books are published, one in January and one in July, giving complete markets for the previous six months, as well as information as to the original house of issue, sinking fund proviso, interest and maturity dates, bonds in default and other details which would be of interest to the dealer.

We also issue two publications, one in April and one in October, giving the same general information covering stocks.

PLEASE NOTE CAREFULLY

Where the information is obtainable, we will incorporate in this Summary the following data:

Par Value

Listed—The name of the city or cities, following this word indicates that the security is traded in on the principal exchange in that city or cities.—Listed, New York (New York Stock Exchange). Where there is more than one exchange in a city, the other is designated by its full title.—Listed, New York Curb.

Outstanding—This is a record of the latest information obtainable as to the amount of stock outstanding. Should a large portion of this stock be controlled by any particular interest, it will be shown as follows:

NEW YORK MUTUAL TELEGRAPH CO. Outstanding, $2,500,000.
Note—Western Union Telegraph Co owns $2,409,300.

Dividends—This information shows the annual rate with payment dates, if our records show that a dividend is being paid regularly. When the rate is followed by a definite date, this shows the last record of dividend payment. When dividend is paid out of income which is guaranteed, the information will appear as follows:

NEW YORK MUTUAL TELEGRAPH CO. Div, 6%-3% J & J.
Note—Western Union Telegraph Co guarantees rental of 6% on stock outstanding.

Convertible—A summary of the conversion privilege.

Redeemable—A summary of the redeemable privilege.

Sinking Fund—A summary of sinking fund proviso.

Company's Office—Principal office of company.

Transfer Office—When transfer office is given on only one class of stock which a company may have outstanding, it is assumed that this applies to all classes.

Public Offering—This information shows the terms on which the security has been offered to the public and to stockholders from time to time.

Notes—Will include all general information which we think will be of value to the subscriber, i.e., receivership, merger, control, acquired, etc.

Letters following tabulation of stock offered or wanted, represent:

A--Advertisements in some newspaper

C—Circular

S—Special Circular on this issue

L—Special Typewritten List

E—National Association Daily—Eastern Sheets

M—National Association Daily—Chicago Sheets

P—National Association Daily—San Francisco Sheets

Bids and offerings in this Summary are arranged with the most recent at the bottom.

The information in this service has been obtained from sources which we believe to be accurate but is not guaranteed.
